

TO LIVE AND LOVE WE MUST FIGHT

Solidarity & Defense Winter Conference

Jan. 19-21, 2018 // Lansing, MI

We are a network of people committed to providing solidarity and defense to communities under attack. We organize along directly democratic and participatory lines and are independent of all political parties and their affiliated groups.

It is our hopes that this conference will be one small step to further the fight against fascism, the state, and all forms of domination. It is through this collective struggle that we can begin to build the world that we want.

Friday evening: dinner and public panel discussion, featuring some of the most dynamic community self-defense projects from around the midwest.

Saturday: workshops and political discussions, followed by an all ages hip hop/DJ show and hangout.

WE WILL BE PROVIDING FOOD, CHILDCARE, AND HOUSING ON BOTH FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
